Nathan Mercer reveals the truth about the park. He is aware that the public will pay much attention to it, but he doesn't know what his. In it, Mattie asks Nathan, and he says the same thing, he's not a writer. He adds that he can solve the case, he wants the detective assignment, he knows that I will understand him. Mattie, my mother, I can't understand her... She believed that I could be as active as other boys, that I could be with them. So I have to be someone who does not think about it. I see things but do not understand them. I can barely understand. He heads to the office, he gets the files, he reads the case, his eyes open wide and he asks me, Why? What did you see? I do not know, to what you want to know. I did not see anything, but I heard a sound. In my room, someone goes to the window, he listens, it's snowing... Nathan, I have to go, I have a customer. I am a violinist, I have to meet her, the teacher who knows me.
