What's new in Japanese Puzzle:

Series 2 #2 1/3 Nikoli (Николи): Eleven-year-old Nikoli is very fond of puzzles and games, but she is not good at them, although she plays every day with her dominoes. She easily solves jigsaws, can count to 100, can solve her storekeeper's accounts and uses her logical mind to respond to people's questions. In order to see her uncle, she travels from Odessa across the Black Sea. Her journey takes her into the warm climate of Egypt. It is here that she meets her new friend Obadiah (Обадих), who is a two-and-a-half-year-old street acrobat with legs as stumps. Together the two set out to solve the world's most enduring riddle - World Champions.

Juzin (Жузин): Juzin is a chess champion seven-year-old. He is calm and gentle. Every day, after school, he plays chess with all chess players of his age. Anybody can play with him. Playing with Juzin is such a pleasant experience. His mother and father are chess grandmasters, which makes Juzin one of those in the world whom everybody comes to see. He plays round the clock, and thanks to his touching moves and wonderful aggression, he is gradually closing in on his next achievement. Juzin recognizes only two players: himself and Ivan. He plays Zugat when he plays against himself. Sometimes he loses because he overstresses a little, and his opponent gets in the way (and vice versa). Juzin also likes things drawn with crayons, and he likes to spend moments standing still in the midst of a chess game. He likes to hug his mother and father, and he is very sweet with his neighbors. He is a good and kind boy.

Ivan (Иван): Ivan is a young chess champion, both in his age and in chess. He plays an aggressive game. This combination of his position and mind causes his opponents serious difficulties. I understand very well what Juzin likes and what he dislikes. And I know a lot about chess history, but I do not waste my time writing to magazines for prizes. Wining is my strong point. But when I am not in my right and aggressive mood, I prefer to visit Juz
