(R. Bahlēsaklāma-cow-uādapātām-palātām)Ajay Banerjee is the Editor of Saumya, a Bengali Language Newspaper published from Kolkata, India. Some Propagators or advocates of Bhakti are of opinion that it is a path of purification since the attainment of Bhakti overcomes the sins of the heart. Others claim that Bhakti is a natural manifestation of pure love and it does not entail any extraneous purification. Bhakti does not intend to purify one's heart or make one pure or better than others. Rather Bhakti is an extraordinary thing which Allah (SWT) bestowed on His supreme servants. Since these souls are incapable of being purified and containing no evil in their hearts, they seek closest proximity to Allah (SWT) and thereby Bhakti is produced. Allah (SWT) said:“You see the land with your naked eyes, ‘Oh My slaves, I am granted salvation by you; I have created you as pure mates, while you are like the colour of mud and the mark of dirt on it; you have no guidance,’ .... Allah says: “To whom We prescribed (Zakat) is the Word of the Most Merciful.”(57:18-19) Allah (SWT) Says: “To whom We sent Waraq (Prophet Moses); “Allah destined for Watan (Muslims) love for Us,”(7:170) Prophet Mohammad (PBUH) Said: “Whoever asks Forgiveness of his sins of heart will find it, and whoever says to his people: ‘We are being tested,’ “Allah says: “They are being asked about it as a right.” (QS. 57:25-24) On the Day of Judgment, Allah will say about them: “Let them have been driven to Hell, for that, an awful punishment.” (Al-Kahf: 17-18) Allah (SWT) says: “When Our Signs Have come to them, it is a struggle that day, and We shall see who is the strongest in faith.” (Al -Jang: 16)Allah
