WinHtmlDump Crack Free Download

WinHtmlDump is a web page html viewer that will work without using an actual web browser. This software can be used as a web developer's tool. Developers can review page source code. A web browser does not have the same abilities and does not allow you to get the source code of a web page. With WinHtmlDump, you can easily view the page source. Get Started Download WinHtmlDump and extract it's content. Note: Leave the self-extracting archive on your desktop. You may need to double-click the archive for it to extract the files. Run WinHtmlDump.exe and select the following options: [] Select the "View Source" option from the "Viewing" menu. [x] Select "Run As Administrator" from the "Options" menu. [x] Select the "Always run as Administrator" option from the "Options" menu. Click OK to start WinHtmlDump.exe. Note: WinHtmlDump will show a progress window, wait until the process is completed and then return to the WinHtmlDump.exe welcome screen. The web page html is displayed in a new window. Note: Please close the WinHtmlDump.exe window or you will lose the web page html data. Changing Options If you would like to use WinHtmlDump as a developer's tool, select the "View Source" option from the "Viewing" menu. It can be used as an alternative to Firefox's firebug and IE's developer tools. For other options, you can right-click on the "View Source" option and select the option you want to use. Note: If you select an option, it will be remembered after you exit the "Viewing" menu. Re-Launch If you would like to re-open the web page html without restarting, double-click the self-extracting archive. Note: When you launch the self-extracting archive, you can delete WinHtmlDump.exe from your desktop. ----- Please read this ReadMe carefully This is a FREE program Please give a good rating if you are satisfied with the program (average 1 - 5) If you have any problems or question, please contact with us through the provided e-mail
